EARTHY TONES

If 2017 was all about vitality, relaxation, and the great outdoors, 2018 will signify felicity, mystique and charisma. This shall manifest in your home decor and interiors with the use of muted greys and hues like Nile Green — a grey and pistachio-green blend, Ash Rose — which is a comforting whisk of grey with red. Bright colour pops like Pink Lavender; Meadowlark a fusion of honey and marigold; and Ultra Violet are all colours to look forward to. Many designers are experimenting with Cherry Tomato, a strong and heated colour that has an orange undertone and will add fierceness to any space with its natural aura. Place an underlying-statement bed in teak, contrasting or complementing cushions or table pieces and coloured laminates with a matte or glossy finish.

2018 is supposed to be the year of the brown dog in the Chinese
